FOR GREAT RACES

Indianapolis, Ind., May 22 .- Forty five cars have entered for the race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway which will open on Friday of this week and will continue Saturday and the following Monday, Memorial Day, The entries are expected to run over fifty before the lists close on Thursday night. Many of the cars will

Little called time.

In addition to his boxing, the bag punching and tossing the medicine ball, Johnson introduced some new exercises with the pulley weighs. All told, he was in the symnasium about an hour. Followings the work-out, he weighed in the presence of a newspaper crowd and tipped the scales at $13 3-4 pounds. A week ago to-day he weighed 224 pounds. There is no longer any suggestion of too much stomach.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 22.—In the presence of fifty members of the Olympic Club and a number of San Francisco sporting men, Jeffries gave the best boxing exhibition of his present season this morning. He went through nine fast rounds of sparring with his brother Jack, Joe Choynski and Bob Armstrong, and at the finish there was not a man among the spectators who did not express the opinion that Jefries is in excellent condition.

tators who did not express the opinion that Jeffries is in excellent condition. The fighter followed the glove work with shadow boxing, rope sktipping and two fast games of hand ball. This was followed by five miles on the road and an hour's row on the river. No work was attempted during the afternoon.

Jack Gleason paid his respects to Jeff for the first time since the establishment of the Ben Lomond training camp. The promoter was merely making a friendly call.

Chief of Police Martin, of San Franchischer

Chief of Police Martin, of San Francisco, stated that in the future all prize-ring affairs will be conducted under his personal supervision. "This goes for the big fight, as well as for the lesser bouts," he said. "The fight fans should he protected, and I believe I know enough of the game to see that its patrons do not get the worst of it. The moment a fight looks peculiar to me I will stop it without consulting either referee or promoter."

Merely Mary Ann."
The Benjamin Players will give the "Merely Mary Aun."

The Benjamin Players will give the initial performance to-night at the Academy of "Merely Mary Ann." which brought fame and fortune to Miss Eleanor Robson, who played it for a whole year in London. "Merely Mary Ann" is by Izrael Zangwell, which fact alone stamps it as a masterpiece, and it contains an irresistible charm in its bright lines, its legitimate comedy and its heart interest. Mary Ann slips into one's heart before he knows it. and she is always a sweet memory. Miss. Catherine Carter will be cast in the tittle role, and Franklin Ritchie will have the part of Lancelot, "Merely Mary Ann" will be seen at the Academy every night this week, with matiness Wednesday and Saturday.
